It is the Editor's sad duty to report that one of TNC's Advisory Editors, Charles E. Rush, of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, passed away on the 31st of January, 1958. Dr. Rush retired in 1954 as director of libraries at the University of North Carolina. Genealogy was one of his many hobbies.

Mr. Noble H. Pace, Sr., a retired business man of 628 West Call Street, Tallahassee, Florida, is now devoting his time to collecting genealogical data on all Paces, everywhere. He offers to exchange data with others, and asks that interested persons write for family sheets for recording of Pace family data; he plans to eventually publish his material.

A new and important series of genealogical source material of Tennessee, "The Volunteer State," will begin this year! The first volume of TENNESSEE MARRIAGE RECORDS, scheduled for publication in March, 1958, will be Carter County, 1796-1850. These volumes will be edited by Miss Pollyanna Creekmore, well-known to all who are acquainted with the East Tennessee Historical Society and the genealogical section of the Lawson McGhee Library in Knoxville, Tennessee. Each volume will be: (a) a separate publication of the marriage records of a Tennessee county copied from the original bonds and licenses; (b) a correction of many inaccurate transcriptions which have appeared in various publications, and will contain many records which have not heretofore appeared in print; (c) multilithed on durable paper and all names not in alphabetical order will be fully indexed; (d) printed in a Limited Edition. Price: $10.00, postpaid. Order from: Family Record Society, 204 Mercantile Bldg., Knoxville, Tennessee.

YEAR BOOK, PASQUOTANK HISTORICAL SOCIETY, Volume 1, 1954-55. Edited by Brig. Gen. John Elliott Wood, Pasquotank Historical Society, Elizabeth City, N. C. 166 pages, illustrated. $3.00, postpaid. This is not a comprehensive history of Pasquotank but rather an introduction, a source book which portrays the personality of the community and its progress. Articles and documents from the all-but-forgotten past have been gathered for inclusion. Together with volumes which are planned to follow, this series will provide the framework for a complete picture of the county since its settlement in the middle 1600's.

CHANCERY AND COMMON PLEAS COURT RECORDS, FAYETTE COUNTY, OHIO, 1828-1878

We all know that deeds, wills and marriage records are the chief sources of genealogical data in a courthouse. However, another invaluable source, often passed by due to difficulty of reading and lack of an index, is the Common Pleas Court records. Fayette Co., Ohio, was formed in 1810, but a courthouse fire in January, 1828, destroyed most if not all the records, 1810-1828. Mrs. Maude Post Rankin and George Robinson, Jr., of Washington Court House, Ohio (county seat of Fayette County), have abstracted and published all the genealogical data from the Chancery and Common Pleas Court Records of Fayette County, Ohio, 1828-1878--127 pages, fully indexed, of vital genealogical data, lawsuits and settlements of estates, etc., giving names and relationships of thousands of heirs!! A truly magnificent contribution to the genealogical world. Incidentally, many North Carolinians settled in that section of Ohio. Price: $7.50, postpaid. Order from: Mrs. H. M. Rankin, 416 East Street, Washington C. H., Ohio.

THREE HUNDRED YEARS ALONG THE PASQUOTANK

The September, 1957, issue of TNC carried the notice of Jesse F. Pugh's forthcoming book, THREE HUNDRED YEARS ALONG THE PASQUOTANK, A BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF CAMDEN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. Now that the book is off the press, North Carolina may well be proud to add this worth while volume to its history bookshelf! "The author vividly depicts the economic, political, social, religious and intellectual life...as exemplified by the lives of its people...over a period of three hundred years." -- Raymond C. Maxwell in The News and Observer, Raleigh, N. C. "All in all, Jesse Pugh has done two fine jobs--the first in research, the second in interpreting what he found." -- Ralph Pool in The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, Va. While the accent is on history, there is enough genealogy to interest the genealogist. Price: $4.00. Order from: Mr. Jesse F. Pugh, Old Trap, North Carolina.

GENEALOGICAL MATERIAL IN OREGON DONATION LAND CLAIMS, VOLUME 1

This book should be of interest to genealogists because of the family data contained, and to historians everywhere because proof of Oregon settlers and their paths of migration are shown. Volume 1 contains abstracts of the first 2500 claims filed at the Oregon City Land Office. Each abstract will show for the settler: his name; his place of residence; date and place of birth; date and place of marriage; first name of wife and last name when it appears in the record; date he settled his claim; names of those who signed affidavits (here will be found names of friends and relatives of the family). Settlers were from all states existing in 1853, most of them born in the late 1700's and early 1800's. A breakdown of the first one hundred claims showed that 17 were born in Ky.; 13 in Tenn.; 12 in Va.; 11 each in Ohio and N. Y.; 6 in Pa.; 4 in W. Va.; 3 each in Conn., Md. and N. C.; 2 each in Ind., Maine, S. C., Vt. and England; 1 each in Ark., Ga., La., Mass., Mo., N. H. and Scotland. 165 pages, fully indexed. Price: $6.50. Address: Mrs. Wayne E. Gurley, Columbia Gorge Ranger Station, Cascade Locks, Oregon.

ABSTRACTS OF SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, WILLS, 1784-1895

Sampson County's Historian, Mrs. Taft Bass, of Clinton, North Carolina, has gone all-out to make her book of Sampson County Wills as complete as possible. She is to be congratulated, not only for patiently digging out the old unprobated and unrecorded wills in addition to the recorded ones, but for arranging the whole into a highly usable reference volume, fully indexed. Sampson County was formed in 1784 from Duplin County, and some of Duplin's "lost" wills are listed by Mrs. Bass; a few of them that are dated prior to 1760 are not to be found in Grimes' Abstracts of North Carolina Wills. Price: $10.00. Order from: Mrs. Taft Bass, Box 463, Clinton, North Carolina.

SAMPSON COUNTY YEARBOOK

Mrs. Taft Bass of Clinton, N. C., has also published The Sampson County Yearbook, 1956-1957, in addition to her volume of Sampson County Wills. The Yearbook gives a wealth of historical and statistical information about Sampson Co., N. C., and its towns. The book has a two-fold purpose: first, to acquaint Sampson County citizens with their county; and second, to furnish authentic information to outsiders about Sampson County which will help them get a true picture of the possibilities it possesses. Many photographs and illustrations, plus an index, make this publication all the more worth while. Price: $3.00. Order from: Mrs. Taft Bass, Box 463, Clinton, North Carolina.

HISTORY OF WEST BRANCH QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE

WEST MILTON'S SESQUI-CENTENNIAL, 1807-1957

The History of West Branch Quarterly Meeting gives a wealth of historical and genealogical data on the Quaker families who settled in and near West Milton, Miami Co., Ohio, in the early 1800's. Among these were John and Sarah (Burkett) Hoover, great-great-grandparents of Ex-President Herbert Hoover, who were from Randolph Co., North Carolina. West Milton's Sesqui-Centennial is actually a history of the town. Both booklets contain many, many photographs and genealogical sections. Price: $2.25 each. Order from: Miss Mary Helen Pemberton, 150 W. High Street, West Milton, Ohio.

HARMONY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, RICHMOND CO., N. C.

Contributed by Mr. Bickham Christian

EDITOR'S NOTE: These church records are an invaluable contribution to the genealogical world, and TNC welcomes the opportunity of publishing them. It is hoped that other subscribers will send in copies of the records from other early N. C. churches for publication. Mr. Christian resides at 644 Herndon Avenue, Shreveport 39, Louisiana.

Foreword

In the summer of 1800, sporadic Presbyterian services began being held in the community three miles west of the present day town of Ellerbe, Mineral Springs Township, Richmond County, North Carolina. The homes of Daniel Gillis, John McLean and Duncan Rankin are mentioned as having been the locale of these services. In the fall of 1804, a comfortable log house was built by the congregation and it was then organized as Harmony Church. The original Elders were Duncan McColl, Duncan Rankin, Daniel Henderson, John McFarland, Senr., and John Billingsly.

The following vital statistics of the congregation are taken from a "Chronicle" done by Alexander McDonald (1776-1861) in the years 1832-1838. He was ordained an Elder in 1808. (McDonald was a great-great-grandfather of the compiler and contributor of this material.)

Persons interested in seeing the original records may go to Ellerbe, N. C., and contact Dr. W. L. Howell or his daughter, Miss Rebecca Howell. The latter has done an excellent certified transcription of the early church records which contains some sixty-five typed pages.

The original compiler of the foregoing record, Alexander McDonald, 1776-1861, Elder of Harmony Presbyterian Church for almost fifty years, ends his "Chronicle" as follows: "The foregoing chronicles contain several names that are not now under the eye of the Session. Many are removed by emigration and by death and some have joined themselves to other denominations. And some that were born & bap. before organizing and died before or soon after or joined others would not have had their names inserted at all on a regular Record if said had been kept. The reason of their insertion here is to keep the families unbroken as far as convenient. On the contrary many persons' names are omitted that have been members at & since the organizing but have been removed by death or emigration."

FAMILY BIBLE (Currie)

The following Bible record was copied about five years ago by Mr. Bickham Christian, 644 Herndon Avenue, Shreveport 39, Louisiana. Mr. Christian says that he failed to make note of the present-day owner of the Bible in Richmond Co., N. C., but that Dr. W. L. Howell of Ellerbe, N. C., would know. These Curries were members of Harmony Presbyterian Church (see above), but three of the Currie children were not listed (namely James, Neil and Mary), two of them probably having died in infancy and the third (b. 1832) probably not born at the time of the compilation of the Church Records. Currie (not Curry) is the correct spelling of the name.

Duncan Currie, Jr., died 4 June 1868 in his 78th year; Cynthia Chance Currie died 6 Sept. 1868 in her 77th year; Duncan Currie, Jr., and Cynthia Chance were married 26 Feb. 1808

A GENEALOGICAL "BINGE"

From The Birmingham (Ala.) News, cSeptember 6, 1957Spinster Goes $15,875 In Hole On Venture

"NEW ATHENS, Ill., Sept. 5--(AP)--Miss Pearl Wildy is $15,875 in the hole on her venture in family history.

"The 67-year-old spinster spent seven years gathering photographs and documents and writing a 200,000-word manuscript tracing the family tree back to Switzerland and the year 1500.

"It cost her $2500 and she spent another $15,000 having 700 copies printed.

"We wanted the book and that was the way to get it,' she said.

"Miss Wildy has managed to sell 65 of the volumes at $25 apiece. She has stored the others at the farm where she lives with a brother, and their mother, an 89-year-old invalid."

NORTH CAROLINA MARRIAGE BONDS

Part I - 1741-1778

The first law in North Carolina pertaining to the intermarriage of whites and Negroes was enacted in 1715 and reenacted in 1741. Any white person who married "an Indian, Negro, Mustee or Mulatto...or any Person of Mixed Blood to the Third Generation" was subjected to a fine of $50.00. The justice of the peace or minister who performed the ceremony was likewise subjected to a similar fine. Most intermarriages were undoubtedly common law marriages. "It was a fact, undeniably in ante-bellum times, that white men occasionally had slave mistresses and frequently exerted every effort to emancipate the offspring of these relations. It is significant that only 8,655 free Negroes out of a total population of 30,463 in 1860 were black and that the remaining 21,808 were of mixed blood." (Ante-Bellum North Carolina, by Johnson, page 588.)

In this period, when divorces were difficult to obtain, it was common for a husband to ask his freedom on the ground that his wife had "known a Negro fellow." Less frequently, white women petitioned for divorce on the ground that their husbands had taken up with Negro women. Many persons who willed property to mulattoes, or sought to obtain their emancipation, did not acknowledge them as children.

Regarding the intermarriage of near relations, it was not until 1852 that marriages "between persons nearer of kin than first cousins" were declared to be illegal. (Revised Code, 1855, Chap. LXVIII, sec. 9.)

NASH CO. (formed 1777) - Twenty-nine marriage bonds are preserved for the 1777-1800 period, the earliest (just one) being dated 1778. Around 2300 of the original marriage bonds, 1778-1868, are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1868.

NEW HANOVER CO. (formed 1729) - Many records destroyed by fires in 1798, 1819, 1840 and 1934. All marriage bonds 1741-1778 are missing and presumably destroyed. 84 marriage bonds have been preserved for the 1779-1800 period. Less than 2000 have been preserved for the 1779-1868 period, with the bulk of them in the 1850's and 1860's. The original marriage bonds are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1867.

NORTHAMPTON CO. (formed 1741) - All marriage bonds 1741-1810 are missing, except one dated 1775. There are over 3500 marriage bonds, dated 1811-1868, in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage records in the courthouse begin in 1850.

ONslow CO. (formed 1734) - Some records may have been destroyed by storms in 1752 and 1786. All marriage bonds 1741-1763 are missing. 72 have been preserved for the 1764-1778 period. Around 1600 of the original marriage bonds, 1764-1868, are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1851. In back of Crown Docket, 1745-1748 (Onslow Co., File No. 72.027, in the Archives in Raleigh) seven marriage licenses are listed. It is impossible to determine whether these were issued in the 1745-1748 period, or entered in the book many years later, but probably the former. These seven will not appear in the 1741-1778 abstract which follows, so are listed here for what they may be worth: James OQuirk and Sarah Grandy

John Smith and Rachel Powel

Richard Rogers and Sarah James

Joseph Mumford and Millia Wright

Francis Godfrey and Elizabeth Williams

Nichs. Spinks and Ann Hurley

Andrew Fullwood and Cath. Loper

ORANGE CO. (formed 1752) - All marriage bonds 1752-1778 are missing. There are around 8000 marriage bonds preserved for the 1779-1868 period; the originals are in the Archives in Raleigh. Marriage records in the courthouse date from 1851.

PASQUOTANK CO. (formed c1681) - The earliest marriage bond is dated 1741, but there are only five preserved prior to 1767 (one each for 1741, 1744, 1745, 1761 and 1765). There is a total of 121 marriage bonds preserved for the 1741-1778 period. There are around 1500 marriage bonds for the 1741-1868 period, preserved in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1865.

PERQUIMANS CO. (formed c1681) - There are 156 marriage bonds preserved for the 1741-1778 period, with the earliest one dated 1742. Around 2000 of the original marriage bonds are in the Archives in Raleigh. Marriage records in the courthouse date from 1847. The typed list in the Archives gives 1778 as the date of marriage bond for William Arps and Pherebee Speight; the correct date should be 1835; the marriage bond for Valentine Arps and Sarah Buckler, dated 1778, was omitted.

PITT CO. (formed 1760) - Many records destroyed by fire in 1857. All marriage bonds 1760-1856 are lost and presumably destroyed except 4 (1826, 1829, 1829, 1833) which are in the Archives in Raleigh. Marriage records in the courthouse date from 1857.

ROWAN CO. (formed 1753) - Nearly 25% of all extant marriage bonds in North Carolina prior to 1778 are to be found in Rowan County--541 of them!! The earliest bond preserved is dated 1758, there being none preserved for the 1753-1757 period. 541 in the 1758-1778 period is an average of nearly 26 per year. Around 7700 of the original marriage bonds, 1758-1868, are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage records in the courthouse date from 1760; the marriage bonds from 1790. Included in the 541 are three with incomplete dates--one dated 177--(before 1776), one dated 177--(after 1776), and one dated 177--, all presumed to be in the 1741-1778 category.

SURRY CO. (formed 1771) ~ No marriage bonds are preserved for the 1771-1777 period. The earliest bond is dated 1778. The bonds seem fairly complete from 1778 on. Around 5000 of the original marriage bonds are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1853.

TRYON CO. (formed 1768; abolished 1779 and formed into Lincoln and Rutherford Cos.) ~ Nineteen marriage bonds have been preserved for the 1768-1778 period.

TYRRELL CO. (formed 1729) ~ 150 marriage bonds have been preserved for the 1741-1778 period, with the earliest one being dated 1742. About 2200 of the original marriage bonds, 1742-1868, are in the Archives in Raleigh. A record of bonds or licenses, 1851-1868, is in the courthouse. The regular marriage register dates from 1877. Hathaway, in The North Carolina Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 3, No. 1 (January, 1903), pages 107-113, published Tyrrell marriage bonds, 1762-1786.

WAKE CO. (formed 1771) ~ Marriage bonds date from 1771, with 42 preserved for the 1771-1778 period. Around 9400 of the original marriage bonds are in the Archives in Raleigh. The marriage register in the courthouse begins in 1851.

WILKES CO. (formed 1777) ~ Marriage bonds begin in 1778, with 15 preserved for that year. Around 4300 of the original marriage bonds, 1778-1868, are in the Archives in Raleigh. Marriage bonds and licenses, 1808-1863, are in the courthouse. The marriage register in the courthouse begins 1870-74.

(NOTE: Data on the marriage records of the counties formed 1779-1800 will appear in a forthcoming issue of TNC.)

CHANCERY AND COMMON PLEAS COURT RECORDS, FAYETTE COUNTY, OHIO, 1828-1878

We all know that deeds, wills and marriage records are the chief sources of genealogical data in a courthouse. However, another invaluable source, often passed by due to difficulty of reading and lack of an index, is the Common Pleas Court records. Fayette Co., Ohio, was formed in 1810, but a courthouse fire in January, 1828, destroyed most if not all the records, 1810-1828. Mrs. Maude Post Rankin and George Robinson, Jr., of Washington Court House, Ohio (county seat of Fayette County), have abstracted and published all the genealogical data from the Chancery and Common Pleas Court Records of Fayette County, Ohio, 1828-1878--127 pages, fully indexed, of vital genealogical data, lawsuits and settlements of estates, etc., giving names and relationships of thousands of heirs!! A truly magnificent contribution to the genealogical world. Incidentally, many North Carolinians settled in that section of Ohio. Price: $7.50, postpaid. Order from: Mrs. H. M. Rankin, 416 East Street, Washington C. H., Ohio.

THREE HUNDRED YEARS ALONG THE PASQUOTANK

The September, 1957, issue of TNC carried the notice of Jesse F. Pugh's forthcoming book, THREE HUNDRED YEARS ALONG THE PASQUOTANK, A BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY OF CAMDEN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. Now that the book is off the press, North Carolina may well be proud to add this worth while volume to its history bookshelf! "The author vividly depicts the economic, political, social, religious and intellectual life...as exemplified by the lives of its people...over a period of three hundred years." -- Raymond C. Maxwell in The News and Observer, Raleigh, N. C. "All in all, Jesse Pugh has done two fine jobs--the first in research, the second in interpreting what he found." -- Ralph Pool in The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, Va. While the accent is on history, there is enough genealogy to interest the genealogist. Price: $4.00. Order from: Mr. Jesse F. Pugh, Old Trap, North Carolina.

GENEALOGICAL MATERIAL IN OREGON DONATION LAND CLAIMS, VOLUME 1

This book should be of interest to genealogists because of the family data contained, and to historians everywhere because proof of Oregon settlers and their paths of migration are shown. Volume 1 contains abstracts of the first 2500 claims filed at the Oregon City Land Office. Each abstract will show for the settler: his name; his place of residence; date and place of birth; date and place of marriage; first name of wife and last name when it appears in the record; date he settled his claim; names of those who signed affidavits (here will be found names of friends and relatives of the family). Settlers were from all states existing in 1853, most of them born in the late 1700's and early 1800's. A breakdown of the first one hundred claims showed that 17 were born in Ky.; 13 in Tenn.; 12 in Va.; 11 each in Ohio and N. Y.; 6 in Pa.; 4 in W. Va.; 3 each in Conn., Md. and N. C.; 2 each in Ind., Maine, S. C., Vt. and England; 1 each in Ark., Ga., La., Mass., Mo., N. H. and Scotland. 165 pages, fully indexed. Price: $6.50. Address: Mrs. Wayne E. Gurley, Columbia Gorge Ranger Station, Cascade Locks, Oregon.

ABSTRACTS OF SAMPSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, WILLS, 1784-1895

Sampson County's Historian, Mrs. Taft Bass, of Clinton, North Carolina, has gone all-out to make her book of Sampson County Wills as complete as possible. She is to be congratulated, not only for patiently digging out the old unprobated and unrecorded wills in addition to the recorded ones, but for arranging the whole into a highly usable reference volume, fully indexed. Sampson County was formed in 1784 from Duplin County, and some of Duplin's "lost" wills are listed by Mrs. Bass; a few of them that are dated prior to 1760 are not to be found in Grimes' Abstracts of North Carolina Wills. Price: $10.00. Order from: Mrs. Taft Bass, Box 463, Clinton, North Carolina.

The book has a two-fold purpose: first, to acquaint Sampson County citizens with their county; and second, to furnish authentic information to outsiders about Sampson County which will help them get a true picture of the possibilities it possesses. Many photographs and illustrations, plus an index, make this publication all the more worth while. Price: $3.00. Order from: Mrs. Taft Bass, Box 463, Clinton, North Carolina.
